SINGLE SEATS TODAY.

Sale for Neill Company Engagement to begin this morning.

All indications point to a big rush this morning when the sale of single tickets for the Neill Company engagement will begin at 9 o'clock at Wall, Nichols Company's. When the history of Honolulu's stage events is written, it will be most interesting to note that the first dramatic performance given under the laws of the United States was given by Mr. James Neill and his famous organization and the play called "An American Citizen." This is a most appropriate title for the new condition of things here.

Many requests have been received for seats from out of town points, some amusement lovers desiring to come from as far as Hilo. The Hawaiian Opera House will doubtless hold one of the largest and most fashionable audiences in its history and the entire Neill season will be a veritable dramatic festival. All ushers and other Opera House employees employed in the front of the theater have been requested to report each evening at 7:30 in full dress suits.

At the Orpheum.

"La Mascotte" will open the week at the Orpheum. "La Mascotte" is more of a musical farce comedy than light opera proper, though it retains sufficient solos and choruses to be generally classified in the latter category. It is a saying among the operatic profession that every joke and piece of funny business finds its source in the "Mascotte." The plot undoubtedly furnishes an excellent nucleus for comedians to build a barrel of fun around, and on that account the opera is always a popular one, the music that has been retained is the pick of a very catchy score, while the military ensemble of the last act gives the chorus a chance to exploit their figures and capacity for drill maneuvers that helps keep the piece in favor. Wolff as Lorenzo the XVII, a perpetually hard-up scion of Italian royalty, created a very favorable impression while playing the part in San Francisco; and Branson as Rocco, has almost equal opportunities and should prove a good second in the fun-making.
The Orpheum management have reduced their gallery prices to 25 cents which should prove an inducement to the gallery gods of Honolulu.

Crimps Watched.

The crimps have been threatening a ship captain. The captain in question intends to give them a warning. The probabilities are that two well known crimps will be arrested today to answer to a grave charge.

WE HAVE JUST RECEIVED a large shipment of these lights. These lamps burn in such a manner that the combustion is almost perfect, and for this reason the light is magnificently brilliant, smokeless and odorless. The lamps are absolutely safe, it being simply impossible to explode.
If you are tired of the bother of ordinary lamps, if you want to rid yourself of their care, the above will appeal to you very strongly. When couple with economy, the appeal is irresistible.

The Angle Lamp accomplishes perfect illumination. It presents an opportunity of receiving light which is easily operated, and more brilliant than gas or electricity, with no more heat, at a mere fraction of their cost. It provides a lamp for homes, stores, offices, factories, halls, libraries, hotels and churches that is ideal in every way.

The public is cordially invited to call and inspect these lamps.
